

NOVEMBER 1940

.15 CENTS

DAILY WORD

A
UNITY
Publication

FOR EACH NEW DAY... THE RIGHT
WORD FOR YOUR INSPIRATION

Society of Silent Unity

Class Thoughts

October 20 to November 19

Daily at 11 a. m. join us in this thought for spiritual illumination:

I am obedient to the voice of wisdom.

At high noon each day concentrate your attention on this thought for prosperity:

I cast out every thought of lack and welcome every thought of plenty. As a man "thinketh within himself, so is he" prospered.

At 9 p. m. each night let us acknowledge the healing power of Spirit with this prayer:

The mind of nature is receptive to the harmony of Spirit, and I am made whole in soul and body.

DAILY WORD is nonsectarian, published monthly by the Unity School of Christianity. Single copies may be obtained at Unity libraries and newsstands at 15 cents. Subscription, $1 a year. Braille subscriptions are sent free to the blind who are familiar with Grade 1½. These gifts are made possible by love offerings.

We also publish Good Business, Progress, Wee Wisdom, Unity, Weekly Unity, and Unity Sunday School Leaflet at $1 a year each.

Subscriptions, renewals, requests for Prosperity Banks, changes of address, book orders, or checks and money orders for publications should be sent to the Publishing Department.

Entered as second-class matter June 13, 1924, at the post office at Kansas City, Missouri, under the act of March 3, 1879. Accepted for mailing at the special rate of postage provided for in section 1103: act of October 3, 1917, authorized June 13, 1924.

When asking us to change your address, please be sure to state which of our magazines you are receiving, and whether you are now using a Prosperity Bank.

Silent Unity, the healing department of Unity School, is happy to minister to every person desiring help through prayer. Requests addressed to Silent Unity, 917 Tracy Ave., Kansas City, Mo., will receive immediate attention. Compensation is by love offering.

DAILY WORD

Vol. 33

NOVEMBER, 1940

No. 5

EDITED UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF SILENT UNITY

Stately and tall, as pictured on the cover of DAILY WORD, the Unity Campanile or Prayer Tower directs the traveler to Unity Farm near Kansas City. Even so this little magazine daily directs your steps to the sun-tipped heights in whose glory you behold yourself as a son of God; for such you are.

My Prayer

Margaret Wooten

In this rich moment I have knelt to pray
And thank Thee for another dawning day;
For all the gifts Thy bounty pours on me
I sing a humble song. My only plea
Is I may learn to give: to give each hour
More of the strength and beauty Thou dost shower

Down through my opened hands. May others know

A lingering of joy where'er I go.
And now, dear Lord, I make no solemn end
Of this brief prayer. Like incense let it send
A fragrance wafting toward my Fount of good—

No closed amen but constant gratitude.

Consecration Service for Peace

For many years Silent Unity has been giving special time and thought and prayer to the establishing of perfect peace and accord in the lives of men, not only among nations in time of war but among individuals in their everyday contacts in the home and outside the home.

In 1917 the custom was begun of observing a special silence for peace at 11 o'clock each morning, and this custom continues today. Loud-speakers throughout the building are turned on for the brief message given, and every worker stands with eyes closed, heart consecrated to the prayer voiced by the speaker: "Liberty, justice, righteousness, and peace are now established throughout the world, in the name of Jesus Christ."

Realizing that the great need of all races, all countries, all peoples today is the consciousness and the realization of enduring peace, Silent Unity is devoting much of its time to peace, lending its most consecrated thought and effort to it. Since last fall the Silent Unity members have devoted an extra half hour before working hours each morning to a special "consecration service for peace" conducted in the healing room.

In June of this year this consecration service was presented at a joint meeting of Silent Unity with the Unity center leaders who had gathered here from all parts of the world. Because these leaders so sincerely appreciated the service as a model to follow in their efforts for peace, we are led to believe that many DAILY WORD readers likewise will be glad to have a copy of the service to follow in co-operating with us each day in prayer for peace.

As together we read the messages and repeat the prayers of the service, let us remember that the words we send out are mighty to produce that which we decree; for the promise is "I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him that is far off and to him that is near, saith Jehovah; and I will heal him."

Greetings

BELOVED in Truth, grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!
From Silent Unity, greetings!

We are gathered here today in the cause of the Prince of Peace, to whose service we have consecrated our lives. For more than twenty of its fifty years of service Silent Unity has spent a portion of every day in prayer for peace. Especially during the last two years we have dedicated ourselves to this cause. The response has been great. There is no part of the world where we do not have friends praying with us for peace.

The peace for which we pray is more than just a temporary suspension of hostilities between two nations. We pray for the end of war and of the war spirit, for the end of selfishness, injustice, and oppression. We pray for the universal peace of God, a just and lasting peace founded on Christ principles. This peace begins in the heart of a man. It ends in the establishment of the kingdom of Christ in the earth. Between the beginning and the end there are many steps.

It is the purpose of this service to help us take these steps, which we have listed here under seven headings:

- |                     |                        |
|---------------------|------------------------|
| 1. The Vision       | 4. The Deliverance     |
| 2. The Consecration | 5. The Spirit of Unity |
| 3. The Light        | 6. The Victory         |
| 7. The Consummation |                        |

Affirmation of Faith

This is our faith, Lord: We have faith in Thy Spirit in man.

The way may seem dark and hard, but the Spirit that has driven men onward and upward across the incredible centuries will bear us up now. It has given us the love of liberty that is stronger than oppression and the courage that is mightier than death. It has given us the knowledge of Thee, O Lord, to whom the ultimate victory belongs.

For the battle is not of men against men, but of men against the darkness. Lo, the day is at hand when the light will shine again.

It will be war, not cities, that is destroyed. It will be ignorance, not men, that dies. There will arise a Christian commonwealth of nations where men will live together in Thee, in fellowship and understanding, working for the common good.

We keep the faith with Thee, O Lord. Amen.

1. The Vision

We sent out the call for prayer, and the people of the world responded. In our letters, in magazines, through friends, through the Unity centers, we have distributed hundreds of thousands of copies of this prayer for peace that we are now going to use. As we speak it together let us realize that we are not alone. From the capitals of the world, from little villages, from ships at sea, from the fields, from churches, from homes, even from the places of battle, an unseen host of men and women united in the Truth are speaking with us. We join with these invisible legions as we declare:

Liberty, justice, righteousness, and peace are now established throughout the world, in the name of Jesus Christ.

For more than a military victory resulting in a continuation of the hatred, selfishness, and fears of the last twenty years we pray. We pray for the end of physical force, for the victory of Christianity. Our birthright is a better world than that which we have known heretofore, a free, just, orderly world where all men can live together in peace and plenty. It is for us who know the Truth to make this world real. This our prayers can accomplish. Let us affirm once more:

Liberty, justice, righteousness, and peace are now established throughout the world, in the name of Jesus Christ.

"Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."

A world of liberty, justice, righteousness, and peace will be established when men realize that they are children of God, brothers in Christ, members of a divine and universal family, one in interest and in purpose. That mankind may achieve this understanding is our daily prayer. Let us declare for a third time:

Liberty, justice, righteousness, and peace are now established throughout the world, in the name of Jesus Christ.

2. The Consecration

Before we can radiate a consciousness of peace to the world we must make ourselves peaceful. The edifice of universal peace is erected on a foundation of individual peace. We must give up every feeling of prejudice and antagonism, and give ourselves to the loving service of the Prince of Peace. Let us declare together:

I give up every feeling of prejudice and antagonism.

Stand with Christ. Can you imagine Him who is called the Prince of Peace inciting anyone to hatred or ill will? Jesus realized that it is love, not strife, that alone can dissolve want and injustice, chauvinism, prejudice, and foolish pride and establish in their place co-operation and understanding. Let us consecrate ourselves to Christ by saying:

I reconsecrate myself to the loving service of the Prince of Peace.

We who are gathered here are indeed in the service of the Christ, and by precept and example we must lead the way toward peace. We must make ourselves peaceful. We are peaceful when we feel peace deep down in the depths of our own being, when we maintain a poised spirit, when we express kindness and love in our actions, when we declare the word of peace for every situation, when we help those around us to keep faith and courage. As we speak our word of consecration let us know that we are at peace.

I give up every feeling of prejudice and antagonism, and I reconsecrate myself to the loving service of the Prince of Peace.

3. The Light

A change of mind is the very first requisite of the new life in Christ. The natural man must be delivered up so that the spiritual man may find expression. When the light of the Christ mind comes to a person it does not confine its rays to his own consciousness, but those who sit in darkness and negation see and feel its power. Let us pray now for the light to be expressed in us, saying:

I express the positive power of the Christ mind in wisdom, love, and good judgment.

Not in physical force or in human personality but in the Christ mind lies the salvation of every country. We pray for this mind to be in the men at the head of this government. When the Christ mind is in a man, he is lifted above weakness, selfishness, or malice. Firm of purpose, inspired in his thinking, considering only the common good, he leads his people safely through difficulties into fuller prosperity and joy. Let us now bless the heads of this government, saying:

You express the positive power of the Christ mind in wisdom, love, and good judgment.

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end."

That the Christ may rule throughout the world, let us declare for the leaders of every country:

You express the positive power of the Christ mind in wisdom, love, and good judgment.

4. The Deliverance

Our thought is a protecting host of angels at the right hand, at the left hand, before and behind, above and beneath. Our thought has power to protect and save. To-day there are many who have not where to lay their head. There are many agencies working to relieve their physical wants, but greater even than their physical wants perhaps is their need for peace of mind and spiritual strength. This we in Unity can give. For we know that we can send our word forth and it will not return void. For the refugees in Europe, in China, all over the world, let us now speak the word:

Yea, though you walk through the valley of the shadow of death you will fear no evil, for God is with you to defend and to deliver you.

"He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of Jehovah, He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in whom I trust.

For he will deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the deadly pestilence.

He will cover thee with his pinions,
And under his wings shalt thou take refuge:
His truth is a shield and a buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,
Nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
For the pestilence that walketh in darkness,

Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side,
And ten thousand at thy right hand;
But it shall not come nigh thee."

Yea, though you walk through the valley of the shadow of death you will fear no evil, for God is with you to defend and to deliver you.

"For thou, O Jehovah, art my refuge!
Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;
There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.
For he will give his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.
They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone."

Yea, though you walk through the valley of the shadow of death you will fear no evil, for God is with you to defend and to deliver you.

"Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:

I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble:
I will deliver him, and honor him.
With long life will I satisfy him,
And show him my salvation."

5. The Spirit of Unity

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brethren to dwell together in unity."

A spirit of unity is a spirit of oneness, oneness with our neighbor, oneness with man, oneness with all nations, oneness with Jesus Christ, oneness with God.

"There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. But unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. . . . When he ascended on high, he . . . gave gifts unto men."

"And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; . . . unto the building up of the body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of the faith."

"Walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

As leaders of Truth centers we express the spirit of Unity. We express the feeling of oneness with God and with our fellow man, irrespective of his creed, color, or nationality. We have a great work to perform, and we are doing that work lovingly, faithfully, and efficiently.

Knowing our mission, let us declare together:

A spirit of unity in Christ now pervades this land.

A spirit of unity in Christ now pervades this hemisphere.

A spirit of unity in Christ now pervades the earth.

6. The Victory

"Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel . . . Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit: and when Jehovah shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall stumble, and he that is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together."

"Let us therefore join ourselves to the innocent and righteous; for such are the elect of God."

Let us affirm our faith in God, saying:

*Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith
Jehovah of hosts.*

Despite appearances, despite opposition, there is a Spirit at work in the world today, even in the countries that have been given over to war. Silently, steadily, surely this Spirit grows in might and moves across the world, linking heart with heart, aspiration with aspiration, moving the peoples of the world together toward one common end, one fellowship of love, one universal humanity. Hate may obscure, gunpowder blacken, but this Spirit endures. It will always endure. It is all that will endure. For it is the Christ Spirit.

We join ourselves with this force by affirming:

*Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith
Jehovah of hosts.*

Not depression or fear, but a clear mind, steadfast courage, and faith in the outworking of the good will bring about that peace of God, that free, just, orderly world which humanity desires, which humanity demands.

Prayer does transform the world. Good is mightier than the forces of destruction. Out of the old emerges the new. Out of the darkness shines the light. Out of the seeming inharmonies of the world rises the promise of a new kingdom and a new life. Not physical force but Christianity is the victor. Valiant in the Truth, we press toward the peace triumphant.

Once more let us affirm our faith in the victory of God.

*Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith
Jehovah of hosts.*

"And ye shall compass the city, all the men of war, going about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days. And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets. And it shall be, that, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him."

The story of Jericho symbolizes the power of the spoken word of God. In this service we have taken six steps toward the overcoming. We have made six affirmations. We have compassed the walls of negation six times. Now we are prepared for the taking of the seventh step, that of the Consummation. With the speaking of this word, we shall see the walls that today seem impregnable, the walls of war and hatred, crumble and fall.

7. The Consummation

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away . . . And I . . . saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven . . . And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. . . . Behold, I make all things new."

"The throne of God . . . shall be in it . . . And there shall be no night there . . . for the Lord God . . . shall reign for ever and ever."

The Lord God omnipotent rules and reigns supreme.

This is a seven-fold affirmation. Let us now repeat it seven times together. And when for the seventh time we have repeated it, let there be joy in every heart, for the walls of negation shall fall and the truth be established, and the kingdom brought forth.

The Lord God omnipotent rules and reigns supreme.

"And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him."

Friday

NOVEMBER 1

I PRAISE GOD FOR A THANKFUL HEART.

As a real spirit lifter, mental quickener, body vitalizer, and good-will promoter nothing can surpass a genuine spirit of thanksgiving. You can almost gauge your advance in Truth by the exultation that wells up within your mind and keeps your heart singing with joy.

Thanksgiving transforms you because it gives you a right perspective. You no longer anticipate dreary days of monotonous performance of duty. You thankfully acknowledge every moment as an opportunity to glorify God.

Let us together make this a month of thanksgiving, praising God for the blessings that we have and for those to which we aspire.

Thirty days devoted to praising God! Think what it will mean as thousands of DAILY WORD readers unite with you in this mighty chorus of thanksgiving: blessings ascending from each heart to God, filling the world to overflowing with thankfulness for His living, loving, healing presence!

☛ Joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.—ISA. 51:3.

NO

I PR

C

to me
but o fixed the s
day v

I re for I
I me
umph
serene spite
The t of a buildi
of poi
I prai
ization

☛ Be s
31:24.

NOVEMBER 2

Saturday

I PRAISE AND GIVE THANKS FOR UNFALTERING COURAGE.

GOD is upholding and sustaining me. He is ever with me, and I cannot falter, cannot fail. I go forward with courage and faith to meet every experience in my path. Problems are but challenges to my courage. I keep my vision fixed upon God and thereby gain the power and the strength with which to meet each issue of the day with fortitude and an undaunted spirit.

I refuse to allow appearances to discourage me, for I know that I am superior to every situation I meet. The power abides within me to rise triumphant and victorious above every trial. I am serene and unshakable in the assurance that in spite of every obstacle I am master of the situation. The time to develop courage is not in the time of a great crisis in my life, but by day after day building into my consciousness right ideas: ideas of poise, stability, fearlessness, and steadfastness. I praise and give thanks that I have a new realization of courage.

♣ Be strong, and let your heart take courage.—PSALMS 31:24.

Sunday

NOVEMBER 3

I AM GRATEFUL FOR A TIME OF QUIET PRAYER.

PEOPLE OFTEN say that they do not have time to pray, or that their day is so busy and full of various activities that there never is a time when they can be alone for a few moments of quiet meditation. Within my own heart and soul I know that there is always time and opportunity to do what I truly desire to do, and I give thanks for the realization that I do have a time for quiet prayer.

Some time during each day I take a few moments for meditation, moments when I can be alone with God. I realize great benefit from these quiet moments. As I pray I am blessed with a deep sense of satisfaction, for I am keeping an appointment with God my Father. In the stillness and quietness of His presence I become receptive to His wise and loving will. I am blessed with wisdom and courage. No incident can disturb me, for in quiet prayer His peace fills my whole being and brings with it freedom from all troubled thought. As I enter into His presence I am exalted and lifted up.

✿ For unto thee do I pray.—PSALMS 5:2.

Monday

AYER.

I GIVE THANKS TO GOD FOR NEW OPPORTUNITIES AND A NEW BEGINNING.

I SURRENDER all my being to God in order that I may renew my strength and make way for new blessings to come to me. Each day brings with it new opportunities for spiritual unfoldment.

Today is a new beginning. As I let go of all limiting ideas, all thoughts of the past, and lay hold of fresh, new, creative ideas, I am blessed with new faith and strength. I am refreshed and filled with new inspiration, new ideas, and new enthusiasm to press forward toward my goal.

I leave old limitations and hindrances behind me as I live solely in the present, for they have nothing to do with the good that awaits me. Each day that has gone before has been but a stepping-stone to the good that I am to realize. Each day is a glorious new adventure, and as I give thanks to God I reconsecrate myself to seeking my good, to finding the way as God reveals it to me in this divine "beginning anew."

* Cast away . . . all your transgressions . . . and make you a new heart and a new spirit.—EZEK. 18:31.

Tuesday

NOVEMBER 5

THROUGH CHRIST IN ME I MEET EVERY ISSUE WITH UNFAILING GOOD JUDGMENT.

WITHIN EVERY one of us there is a divine faculty of good judgment that, when directed by the Christ in us, enables us to decide and act wisely in every circumstance that arises, big or small. It is ours to call upon and to use at will.

Today many of us in the United States will be called upon to participate in an important political election. It is a time when good judgment is needed. By exercising the wisdom and judgment of Christ within we can make the wise and right decision. As we keep our mind attuned to the source of God's good judgment within us we can discern the good and true in each campaign and let fall harmless upon our ears any false, prejudiced propaganda.

I rest secure in the knowledge that through prayer and meditation I can always avail myself of righteous judgment in solving every situation that may arise in my daily living.

✽ Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the sojourner that is with him.—DEUT. 1:16.

NOVEMBER 6

Wednesday

MY AFFAIRS ARE GOVERNED BY GOD'S LAW
OF DIVINE JUSTICE. FOR THIS CAUSE I AM DEEPLY GRATEFUL.

WHEN I acknowledge that God's law of divine justice governs my life and all that concerns me, I let go of all feeling of being mistreated by others or of having been dealt with unjustly. I dwell constantly in the realization of the power of God to right every inharmony in my life and to bring order and peace into my affairs.

Because I keep my vision fixed upon God and His law, I find it easy to deal justly with others. I also think of them as dealing justly with me and as giving me the same consideration of rights and privileges that I have given them.

If there is a need of an adjustment in my life, I first give thanks that my own mind and heart are freed of all thoughts of unfairness and injustice. Then God's peace pervades my whole being and I rest secure in the knowledge that what is rightfully mine cannot be taken from me, that what is for my highest good shall come to me.

♣ I will sing of lovingkindness and justice.—PSALMS 101:1.

Thursday

NOVEMBER 7

I PRAISE AND GIVE THANKS FOR THE FORGIVING GRACE OF CHRIST NOW EXPRESSING ITSELF THROUGH ME.

THROUGH THE understanding grace of Christ within me I discern how unwise it is to believe that others have offended or injured me intentionally. I know that in his true self every person is kind, patient, loving, wise. Regardless of what another may say or do, the Christ in me helps me to behold only perfection in every individual I contact.

Whenever there is an appearance of injustice, or I feel that some person has fallen short of the high standard of Truth, I pray only that he may be forgiven, illumined, and led in the Christ way of honesty, fairness, righteousness. I open my mind and heart to the forgiving grace of Christ and every grudging thought and bitterness is dissolved. There is no room for resentment or hurt of any kind, for this has been replaced with forgiveness. I give thanks for the forgiving grace of Christ that cleanses my mind and my heart and transforms my life.

✿ For I will forgive their iniquity.—JER. 31:34.

*Friday*FOR-
SING

GREAT IS MY THANKFULNESS, FOR CHRIST
HAS SET ME FREE FROM ALL BELIEF IN BOND-AGE.

Christ
to bejured
every rdless
n me indi-

IN ORDER to free myself from all bondage I must first free my mind from the belief that I am held in bondage by the things of the world or that I can be limited in any way. Today I abide in the realization that I am not enslaved or in any bondage, for Christ within has set me free.

justice,
of the e may
t way
n my Christ
is dis-
r hurt
h for-grace
rt and

In order to exercise a consciousness of freedom I keep my thoughts centered upon the free Spirit of Christ within me. This is the presence and power within me that is able to set me free from all human beliefs in bondage. As I perceive the truth of my freedom I am lifted above every limitation. I am not bound by the beliefs of disease, fear, or poverty. Neither do I believe that I can be held in bondage to any habit, for I live in a world of freedom. Nothing can hold me in actual bondage. I give thanks for the realization that I am now unfettered and unbound, triumphant, glorious, splendid, free!

4.

* Stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage.—GAL. 5:1.

Saturday

· NOVEMBER 9

I AM THANKFUL THAT I AM NO LONGER ANXIOUS, FOR I TRUST GOD IN ALL THINGS.

IF I become overanxious about anything, it is because I do not trust God enough. It is only when I begin to wonder how I can cope with situations of the world about me that thoughts of worry and anxiety crowd out thoughts of trust.

Regardless of how disturbing things may appear to me, when I trust in God my whole world is brought into a state of peace, harmony, and order. I know within my heart that God is taking care of me and my affairs. I need but release my interests to Him and all anxious thoughts will be eliminated from my mind. There is nothing in the world that can prove to be too much for the all-knowing mind of God.

I give my whole thought to trusting in God. I praise Him and give thanks to Him, for He directs all the details of my life. There is nothing to cause me fear, doubt, or anxiety, for I have the assurance of His power to help me. I trust Him with a perfect heart, and rest secure.

✱ In nothing be anxious; but . . . with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.—PHIL. 4:6.

NOVEMBER 10

Sunday

I REJOICE THAT I AM RECEPTIVE ONLY TO TRUTH.

WHETHER MY life is to be a great success or not depends solely upon how much of the Truth I discover and put into practice. In order to be receptive only to the Truth of life, I must know how to live justly and honestly, how to love my neighbor as myself, how to fulfill my duty to my fellow men, and how to find beauty in nature and in fine friendships. I know that I must find all the truths for myself.

Truth is everywhere; it is eternal and unchanging. It will never be disproved. As I give my whole attention to gaining a deeper understanding of Truth my thoughts, words, and actions are governed by the perfect standard of Truth.

My whole consciousness is so filled with the Truth that I no longer have any association with anything but Truth, and my every longing is satisfied. I give thanks for the Spirit of truth that abides in me. As I open my mind to it, I am receptive only to that which has its source in Truth. Praise God!

• Guide me in thy truth, and teach me.—PSALMS 25:5.

Thanksgiving

Berlin M. R.

There is frost upon the window at the Harvest fields lie brown and bare, but
And the orchards look like etching
Now that cellars hold the bounty of the Kindred folk now drawn together join
Singing songs of glad thanksgiving and to Gracious Father, not for this one harvest
In our hearts we find love's holy, new Virtue, budding into blossom, give and Infinite is its compassion that numbs
Now we thank Thee for abundance of Given when we feed upon the bread of

Day of all days yet most blessed is
All shall worship in their living make
Years made up of such thanksgiving shall

Thanksgiving Day

Bert M. Russell

indown at the hearthstone bears a glow.
nd bay, but the garner overflow.
etching where the hilltop meets the sky bounty let their branches long held high.
together join with us in festive cheer.
sgiving and the glory of the year.
his our harvest only give we praise;
we's day, not just one day but all days:
om, grow and ripens into grace.
that rems and lifts the race.
abundance of the Spirit's leavened bread
on the road of life as Thou hast said.
t this is the day now dawning, when r living making brothers of all men:
anksgiving shall blend heaven and earth again.

Monday

NOVEMBER 11

I REJOICE IN MY POWER TO ESTABLISH PEACE.

NO MATTER what the state of the world about me may seem to be, I rejoice in the power with which God has blessed me, the power to manifest peace. In the midst of apparent turmoil, I am calm and poised, filled with the spirit of divinity, for God is my shield, my defense, my peace. God dissolves from my mind every intolerant, prejudiced thought. Strife and combativeness are wiped away through His understanding love. He fills me with fearless courage and with the faith to hold steadfastly to the vision of His peace established in the minds and hearts and lives of all men everywhere.

I rejoice that I am a center from which the peace of God emanates, a lighthouse of peace to all the world. The courage I radiate helps to dispel fear. The love God reveals through me inspires others to manifest tolerance and understanding. Because I am loyal to the ideal of liberty, justice, righteousness, and peace I instill in others the faith that makes God's will of good be done in earth as it is in heaven.

✿ Blessed are the peacemakers.—MATT. 5:9.

NOVEMBER 12

Tuesday

I AM SINCERELY APPRECIATIVE OF GOD'S GUIDANCE, WHICH REVEALS THE RIGHT PATH TO ME.

IN MY DAILY living I am constantly faced with having to make decisions. There is no reason why I should be hesitant or undecided as to the path to take in order to realize my good, for there is an all-knowing power guiding me on my way. This power is a guiding light that shines before me. It reveals the right path to me as I turn to God within me.

Before me stretches but one path, the Christ pathway to joyous living. I turn within for guidance, for I realize that my confused state of mind has been brought about because I was so absorbed in trying to decide the right course to follow I forgot that God would guide and direct me if I but asked.

There is no reason for me to falter or waver in the uncertainty of indecision, for there is never a time in my life when I do not have access to God's guidance. I praise and give thanks for this source of inner guidance that leads me unerringly.

☛ He guideth me in the paths of righteousness.
—PSALMS 23:3.

Wednesday

NOVEMBER 13

MY HEART MAGNIFIES THE LORD, AND MY LIFE IS FILLED WITH HAPPINESS.

I BEGIN this day in a spirit of joy and happiness, for God is blessing me now with the consciousness of radiant joy and enduring happiness. There is nothing that can dismay, daunt, or discourage me, for my happiness does not lie in worldly things or circumstances. I do not find real happiness by going out in search of it; the source of my happiness is within me.

I do not look with longing toward some future time or to the materialization of something desired. Each day brings with it new opportunities to rejoice and be happy about the things at hand. Each person I meet, each task I undertake, each situation or undertaking that confronts me brings with it some blessing. As I earnestly seek these blessings and rejoice in their manifestation, I am fulfilling the purpose of my Father, who made this world and all the good that is within it. I look joyously and expectantly for all the good that is along my pathway, and I find great happiness in its expression.

✿ He that keepeth the law, happy is he.—PROV. 29:18.

NOVEMBER 14

Thursday

PRAISE GOD, I AM FREE FROM ALL THOUGHTS OF CRITICISM AND CONDEMNATION.

THE SPIRIT of God within me helps me to discriminate the false from the true. I do not judge others or criticize them for doing things that appear wrong to me. I realize that all persons have the right to their own beliefs, the right to choose the way of their progress. I do not judge another according to my own conception of rights and privileges, for when I live according to God's law my judgment is impersonal and un-biased.

I know that people are not reformed by condemnation. Rather faith in them and love for them will be of the greatest help. It is through beholding Christ in others that I am able to help them express the highest ideals of God's plan in their life. When I criticize and condemn others I so darken my own world that I fail to see the radiant presence of God. I may not always approve of the actions of others, but I steadfastly behold the Christ in them and trust in His presence to guide and direct them.

☛ Thou shalt let him go free from thee.—JER. 34:14.

Friday

NOVEMBER 15

MY HEART IS FILLED WITH PRAISE BECAUSE I KNOW THAT I AM A SON OF GOD.

As a son of God I have received from my Father the power to control my world, and I am indeed grateful for this knowledge. Regardless of any situation that may arise in my life and in my affairs, I am not disturbed or alarmed, because I am the master of every circumstance that confronts me. I have been blessed with the strength, courage, and determination needed to overcome every adverse condition.

From my Father I have inherited all the good that is a part of Him; therefore I have the ability to accomplish all that I desire to do. As I keep my thoughts keyed to the realization of my sonship, I have the power to draw upon the life, joy, peace, wisdom, supply, and all the good that is a part of God's perfect creation. I am a son of God; as I acknowledge this truth I quicken within myself and bring into expression every divine quality that I possess. I am His son, and I give thanks because He upholds, sustains, and blesses me as I live close to Him.

✿ For ye are all sons of God.—GAL. 3:26.

NOVEMBER 16

Saturday

I AM GRATEFUL FOR THE POISE AND CALMNESS OF CHRIST THAT PERVADES MY BEING.

AS I become conscious of Christ's ruling in my heart, I realize at the same time that He rules my life and my world. I know that there is no need to become tense or perturbed, for Christ is with me and all things are working together for my well-being.

I do not become nervous and excited in an effort to handle my affairs, for Christ is with me and nothing can disturb me. I draw poise and calmness from my indwelling Christ. I now take command of all the circumstances of my life and find the right solutions, for I am established in His presence. I can be of the greatest help to others only when my own attitude expresses quietness and poise. My mind is receptive to the inspiration and wisdom of Christ only when I am serene and poised. I praise and give thanks for the Christ Spirit that pervades my being. I resolve today to still every thought of distrust and unrest and to dwell in the poise and calmness of Christ in me.

✠ Stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah.—EXOD. 14:13.

Sunday

NOVEMBER 17

I PRAISE AND GIVE THANKS THAT I AM
FILLED WITH THE NEWNESS OF SPIRIT.

THE NEWNESS of Spirit now fills my mind and my body. I give up old, useless ideas in order to think new thoughts of health and prosperity. New thoughts bring newness to my mind and I am mentally and physically renewed.

New and rich ideas come to me from the mind of Spirit and impart to me new and greater blessings. These ideas are quick and powerful, and they reveal to me the riches of Spirit, the riches that are mine. The consciousness of newness now felt in my mind and my body is the ever-renewing power of Spirit manifesting itself in me. I cannot become old in mind and body as long as I abide in the consciousness of newness. I cannot be separated from the new life of Spirit as long as I am consciously unified with Spirit.

I praise and give thanks that Spirit continues to renew me daily. The Spirit of newness is ever revitalizing and renewing my body with its power, ever refreshing and filling my mind with new ideas, and my good is never withheld from me.

✿ Renew a right spirit within me.—PSALMS 51:10.

NOVEMBER 18

Monday

I AM GRATEFUL FOR EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO GIVE JOYOUS SERVICE.

MY WORK is work in the service of God, and I regard it as an opportunity not only to help others but also to express myself in thought and act. No matter what I may be doing, I think of myself as working for God, and I give myself wholeheartedly to the thing at hand. I do not compare the quality or the amount of work that I do with the quantity and quality of work done by others.

I do not go by any standard that is set by others, for I am governed by a high standard within myself, the standard of giving the very best of which I am capable. When I do this, I accomplish my work with great joy and ease and satisfaction, and the law of good attracts to me the prosperity and success that are the reward of loving, generous service.

With a grateful heart for the work that I have, I go forth joyously this day into a world of opportunity, service, and blessing.

☛ The works that I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me.—JOHN 10:25.

Tuesday

NOVEMBER 19

I GIVE THANKS FOR THE CHRIST LOVE THAT FINDS FREE EXPRESSION THROUGH ME.

I GIVE thanks for the perfect love of Christ now being expressed through me. This love enables me to live in a consciousness of oneness with my fellow men. I no longer confine my love to my immediate family and close friends, but I let it reach out to bless everyone I contact. In this way I unify myself with the Christ in all people, and we draw closer to one another.

To express love for others I must keep my heart so filled with love that there will be no room for unkind and unloving thoughts to find expression. There can be no thoughts of hate or personal animosity when I behold all people filled with the presence of love. This love enables me to forgive past mistakes, and to let go of all thoughts of censorship and intolerance.

Today I look past all outer conditions and limitations. I abide in the all-infolding love of God, and I express graciousness, kindness, and consideration for others.

✿ This is my commandment, that ye love one another.
—JOHN 15:12.

Class Thoughts _____

TO BE USED FROM

November 20 to December 19

---

These affirmations, known as the Unity class thoughts, are composed by Charles Fillmore for the purpose of providing central ideas upon which Truth students everywhere may concentrate during the month. You are invited to use them with us not only at the hours specified but whenever you have opportunity.

At 11 a. m. use this thought for

ILLUMINATION . . . The Christ mind inspires me with wisdom and understanding.

At 12 noon use this thought for

PROSPERITY . . . I affirm prosperity every day, and plenty fills my coffers.

At 9 p. m. use this thought for

HEALING . . . I am filled and thrilled with Christ life, and I realize that Jesus is saying to me right now, "Thou art made whole."

The lessons on the following three pages are based upon these class thoughts.

Wednesday

NOVEMBER 20

THE CHRIST MIND INSPIRES ME WITH WISDOM AND UNDERSTANDING.

I THANK God that the same mind that was in Christ Jesus is in me. The same light of divine wisdom, love, and understanding that inspired Him with faith, courage, and joy inspires me. I bless and praise Jesus Christ for His living and ever-powerful words of life, love, substance, confidence, strength, and wholeness.

It strengthens me to know that the same mind that was in Christ Jesus is in me, a fount of infinite wisdom from which I may draw at any moment healing thoughts of life, quieting thoughts of peace, limitless ideas of success and substance, thoughts of joy that create happiness for myself and others, unfailing intelligence for every need.

If I have a problem to meet, a question to answer, I can still the outer thoughts of confusion, doubt, and uncertainty; turning to the Christ mind within me, I receive instantly just the wisdom, understanding, answer, and remedy I need. Questions are answered and problems are solved to my joy and to the glory of Christ. Praise God!

✿ We have the mind of Christ.—I COR. 2:16.

NOVEMBER 21

Thursday

I AFFIRM PROSPERITY EVERY DAY, AND PLENTY FILLS MY COFFERS.

THE CHRIST mind feeds my mind with substance-filled ideas so that no poverty ideas can remain or gain entrance there. The Christ mind is ever one with God, receptive to Him, ready to give out the blessing of plenty to all people everywhere. There is no envy in the Christ mind. It rejoices in the good of all. There is no lack there; only recognition of God as complete supply. There is no want, no possibility of an unfulfilled need. God's riches pour out through the Christ mind in me. His substance fills my thoughts, His fairness enters into all my dealings with others.

No denial of God's rich supply, no minimizing of His ability, willingness, and readiness to meet every human need ever issues from the Christ mind. Knowing this full well, I proclaim abundance for everybody and affirm prosperity that is the working out of God's law. Every day I thankfully acknowledge and affirm prosperity, and every day plenty flows into my life and affairs.

✱ The same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him.—ROM. 10:12.

Friday

NOVEMBER 22

I AM FILLED AND THRILLED WITH CHRIST LIFE, AND I REALIZE THAT JESUS IS SAYING TO ME RIGHT NOW, "THOU ART MADE WHOLE."

HOW THANKFUL I am for the abundant Christ life that is filling me now! How grateful I am that the words of Jesus Christ are living words, just as potent today as they ever were! How glad I am that His faith, love, and power have never diminished, never been withdrawn. They are working in me this moment, quickening my ears to hear, quickening every cell in my body to receive His cheering message "Thou art made whole."

The voice of faith that speaks from within my heart, the voice of Christ that echoes through centuries of time, speaks through me to others just as it spoke through Jesus, saying, "Thou art made whole." He relieved the suffering of the people, He eliminated sickness by healing them. By His power, in His name I can do likewise. This day I am quickened with the healing life of the Christ. Today I lift up my heart, hands, mind, and service to Him in order that they may fulfill His words.

✿ Arise, take up thy bed, and walk.—JOHN 5:8.

NOVEMBER 23

Saturday

MY LIFE IS A SONG OF PRAISE TO GOD, BECAUSE I AM CONSECRATED WHOLLY TO HIM.

JOYFULLY I consecrate myself to God so that His perfection may be made manifest through me. I dedicate my hands to God and His service and they move swiftly and accurately. I consecrate my mind to Him and He inspires me to make right decisions. He governs my heart and I am helpful, loving, courteous to other persons. He rules my emotions and I am calm, poised, serene through every situation. He shines through my eyes and they reflect the clarity and strength of Spirit. He speaks through me, and hears through me, and sees through me. I feel no stress or strain, for He is with me.

I do not look with dread to the new day, expecting it to be dull and tiresome. Because I am consecrated to God I am alive, alert, awake, joyous, and enthusiastic. My affairs are in divine order, and all things move along in exact precision. I am equal to the thing at hand, for God in me is mighty.

✿ I have commanded my consecrated ones, yea, I have called my mighty men.—ISA. 13:3.

Sunday

NOVEMBER 24

JOYFULLY AND GRATEFULLY I HEAR AND
HEED THE VOICE OF GOD; AND MY PHYSICAL HEARING IS RESTORED!

TODAY I turn away from outer worries, cares, and thoughts. I still my mind and turn to God in trustful prayer. Getting back to the spiritual source of my being, I renew my union with the perfect One. I open my consciousness to the inner voice of Spirit, and I hear and am obedient to the promptings of God to rest in His love and care. As I touch once more the wellspring of all my faculties and am consciously aware of God as the source of my hearing, my outer ears respond. The nerves and cells adjust themselves, and I hear and understand outer voices just as I hear and understand the still small voice of God within. The perfection of Spirit expresses itself through my faculty of hearing, and I rejoice in wholeness.

Realizing that divine healing comes from within, I speak today's word for others. I behold my loved ones, my friends, and all whom I meet this day freed from every mortal limitation. Blessed are my ears, for they are opened to God!

♣ Mine ears hast thou opened.—PSALMS 40:6.

NOVEMBER 25

Monday

GREAT IS MY REJOICING, FOR I SEE AS GOD SEES; AND MY VISION IS PERFECT, CLEAR, AND TRUE.

TODAY I consecrate my powers of vision to God. God through me sees all things as they are in Truth. His vision is all-discerning, all-comprehending, all-revealing. I am now receptive to the illumination of God's perfect understanding.

Because God has illumined my mind, my understanding is clarified and strengthened. All doubt, obscurity, and negation are dispelled by the clear shining of God's light in my mind. My way is now made clear. It lies before me a bright, beautiful avenue of opportunity, joyous service, and true attainment. My thought is illumined and inspired, and I gladly follow God's guidance.

Attendant upon my quickening in spiritual understanding and my mental upliftment is the renewal and strengthening of my eyesight. God's light shines in me and through me as spiritual understanding, and my vision is perfected both mentally and physically.

✱ Open thou mine eyes.—PSALMS 119:18.

Tuesday

NOVEMBER 26

I REJOICE AND GIVE THANKS TO THEE, O LORD, THAT THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH ARE ACCEPTABLE IN THY SIGHT.

I CONSECRATE my voice to Thee so that the words of my mouth may be acceptable unto Thee. My desire is that my every word carry joy and happiness, peace and praise, courage and faith. My lips are closed to negation, my voice hushed to all that is unlovely.

Instead of words of blame or censure I speak words of praise and appreciation. No word of argument or controversy may pass my lips. I express agreement and tolerance. I do not murmur or complain. My language is gentle, quiet, understanding, like that of Jesus. My lips utter no words of self-pity. I give voice to faith and assurance that what is mine daily comes to me.

Because I submit my speech to the approval of God there can be no outbursts, no impulsive words. I speak thoughtfully and only after my thoughts have matured into wise forms of expression. I no longer lend my voice to gossip or to anything needless. I seek always to use words of love and truth.

✿ Let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ.—PHIL. 1:27 (A. V.).

NOVEMBER 27

Wednesday

FOR ALL THE BLESSINGS THAT NOW ARE MINE, THANKS BE TO GOD.

AS I PRAISE and give thanks to God my Father for all the blessings in my life, I raise my consciousness to the realization that I have already received richly and bountifully. My heart overflows with gratitude at knowing that I am so wonderfully blessed by a loving and gracious Father.

There is always within my heart a stirring of praise in response to each evidence of good that I receive. As I praise and give thanks for the little blessings, other evidences of good appear, and I find much to rejoice over. Thanksgiving is not only an expression of gratitude for blessings received; it also sets into action the law of increase. Therefore I give thanks for the blessings I desire just as though they were manifest.

God is constantly pouring out His blessings upon me. I acknowledge and continually give thanks to Him for my good, visible and invisible, and it appears in ever-increasing measure.

*I will sing unto Jehovah,
Because he hath dealt bountifully with me.*

—PSALMS 13:6.

Thursday

NOVEMBER 28

Thank You, God

ROSE SKINNER

Thank You, God, for life and peace,
For friendship's loving ties;
Thank You for the might to do
All that before me lies.

Thank You, God, for wisdom too
That guides me every day;
For patience, and the will to see
Your good and perfect way.

Thank You, God, for courage true,
For strength and help divine;
Your inspiration leads me on
To all that's good and fine.

Thank You, God, for power to speak
And stay the darkening storm:
My hand seeks Yours, and I am kept
Secure from any harm.

Thank You, God, for Jesus Christ,
Your radiant, blessed Son,
Whose way of life reveals to me
That You and I are one.

NO

I LI
MY

N

ing
that

Fath

man

othe

that are far

I

man

into

I

and

My

ousl

upon

good

• F

way.

NOVEMBER 29

Friday

I LIVE GLORIOUSLY, AND I PROSPER BECAUSE MY ATTENTION IS FIXED ON GOD, THE GOOD.

MY LIFE is glad and free, free from fear of tomorrow and its needs, free from worrying about today. I look only for the unfolding of God's goodness. I keep in mind the truth that everyone is a son of God, good because our Father is good. I no longer compare, saying, "This man is good and should have abundance, but this other one is evil and does not deserve the good that is manifested in his life." While my thoughts are centered on God, the good, condemnation is far from my mind.

I see all prosperity as God's good come into manifestation. I rejoice in the good that comes into the life of my neighbor. I am not envious.

I bless my neighbor and look for good in him and in his dealings; thus only good comes to me. My life is rich and full and joyous. I live gloriously and I prosper because my attention is fixed upon God, the eternal, ever-present, all-abundant good. Praise His holy name!

* Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way.—PSALMS 37:7.

Saturday

NOVEMBER 30

THROUGH CHRIST I AM RESURRECTED OUT OF DARKNESS AND LIMITATION INTO LIGHT AND ETERNAL LIFE.

THIS DAY I unify myself with the superior strength and eternal life of Christ. I tap the fount of inexhaustible rejuvenation and energy within me, and I quicken the power and life that nothing can deplete or overcome.

As I unfold the potentialities that God has implanted within me my whole life and affairs are transformed. I see the good and true and eternal. Everything of a lesser nature pales into insignificance, because I hold my vision steadfast on the glory of Christ. I have clearer understanding, steadier faith, and a better insight into life. I have a worthy aim and purpose in living.

Through resurrecting the Christ in me I develop nobler traits of character. I have a broad charity and large patience in judging myself and others. I am sincere and hopeful and joyous. I am humbly grateful for the grace of God that is my hope of redemption. The divine, transformed, transcendent Christ is resurrected in me!

✿ I am the resurrection, and the life.—JOHN 11:25.

GOD A PRESENT HELP NOW READY

The fundamentals of Truth are presented in a dynamic and vital way by H. Emilie Cady in this latest Unity book, GOD A PRESENT HELP. Doctor Cady is also the author of LESSONS IN TRUTH and HOW I USED TRUTH.

GOD A PRESENT HELP explains the will of God and how to establish it in your life; it teaches the way to "Life More Abundant"; the Truth way of "Giving and Forgiving," and helps you to gain the faith necessary to demonstrate.

GOD A PRESENT HELP has appeared in serial form in UNITY magazine during the past year. It is now a Unity standard book and is priced at $1 in the cloth; $2 in the flexible binding.

New Children's Book for Christmas JET'S ADVENTURES

Just in time to solve your problem of Christmas gifts for children comes the book JET'S ADVENTURES, made up of the popular "Jet" stories that ran in WEE WISDOM magazine.

These stories were published in three different serials as "Jet's Baggage," "Jet's Friends," and "Jet's Cabin Home." They take the young reader back to pioneer days when families journeyed together in covered wagons across prairies and mountains to find new homes in the Far West. How Jet Stockwell, a twelve-year-old boy, reacted to the experiences on the long trek and how he adjusted himself to life in the wilderness makes one of the most interesting stories imaginable. Better still, it is based so definitely on the Unity teaching that it will be of real value to every boy and girl. This fascinating book of nineteen chapters will sell for $1.

She uses the Bank drill because it brings her into closer touch with her good

California—"A good friend has been kind enough to lend me her copies of Unity periodicals, which I enjoy so much that I can hardly wait for the next number to appear. I want to share this pleasure with others, so I am asking for a Prosperity Bank. I could send the money in advance for these subscriptions, but I feel I shall be in closer touch with you in remembering to save for them every day."

If you wish to share Truth with others and reap a blessing for yourself, send for a Prosperity Bank and use the drill each day while you save to send Daily Word to your friends. Your own subscription may be included.

Unity School of Christianity, 917 Tracy, Kansas City, Mo.

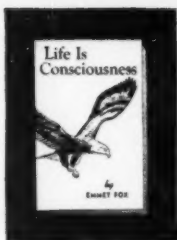

Please send me a Prosperity Bank and ask Silent Unity to pray with me for my prosperity. I will use the drill seven weeks and save $3 for the three Daily Word subscriptions (one year each) listed below:

Name .....
Street .....
City ..... State .....
Name .....
Street .....
City ..... State .....
Name .....
Street .....
City ..... State .....
Sender's name .....
Street .....
City ..... State .....

A New Greeting Booklet for Christmas

BY EMMET FOX

EMMET FOX, well-known metaphysician of New York City, formerly of London, is the author of Unity's new greeting booklet Life Is Consciousness. It formerly appeared as an article in Unity magazine, and its wide popularity is the reason for its being chosen for the 1940 Christmas greeting booklet.

YOUR FRIENDS WILL PRIZE IT

With colorful covers, this booklet (size  $3\frac{3}{4}$  by  $5\frac{7}{8}$  inches) will delight all your friends. But it will mean more to them than just a pleasant reminder of the season; it will bring them a message of hope and inspiration expressed in such a simple, direct way that they do not need to be Truth students in order to understand it.

The price of this booklet is no more than you would pay for the average greeting card, and a Christmas envelope is included with each booklet. Life Is Consciousness and the other booklets listed on this page sell for 10 cents a single copy;

12 for $1

OTHER GREETING BOOKLETS

Holy Bread	The Great Helper	Twenty-Four Golden Hours
Joy Cometh	The Protecting Presence	The Way of Faith
One Perfect Gift	The Song of Life	What Child Is This?
The Challenge of the Dawn	The Turning Point	Where Blessings Begin
Prayer of Prayers (New this year)

IN THIS ISSUE

My Prayer (Poem)

Consecration Service for Peace

Thanksgiving Day (Poem)

Thank You, God (Poem)

---

Daily Lessons for November

- |                  |                  |                  |
|------------------|------------------|------------------|
| 1. Thankfulness  | 11. Peace        | 21. Prosperity   |
| 2. Courage       | 12. Guidance     | 22. Healing      |
| 3. Prayer        | 13. Happiness    | 23. Consecration |
| 4. New Beginning | 14. Appreciation | 24. Hearing      |
| 5. Judgment      | 15. Son of God   | 25. Vision       |
| 6. Justice       | 16. Poise        | 26. Words        |
| 7. Forgiveness   | 17. Newness      | 27. Blessings    |
| 8. Freedom       | 18. Service      | 28. Thanksgiving |
| 9. Trust         | 19. Love         | 29. The Good     |
| 10. Truth        | 20. Illumination | 30. Resurrection |

on ng

on